THOMPSON TO QUIT IF HIS FIGHT FAILS

Will Resign Mayor's Office If Swanson Is Elected

CHICAGO, April 6. (AP)—From the maelstrom of accusations, recriminations, and mudslinging which the April 10 primary campaign by two Republican factions has become, the statement by Mayor William Hale Thompson that he would resign if Robert E. Swanson, co-leader with him, was defeated for state attorney stood out today.

"Yes, I will resign if Swanson is elected," said Mayor Thompson. "I am tired of fighting."

He referred to Judge John A. Swanson, who is seeking the nomination from the Lowden-Densen ticket.

From the candidates for the nomination for United States senator down to the humblest county office candidate who participated in scores of speeches throughout Chicago today all found the order of the day to be greater or lesser degrees of mudslinging.

Col. Frank L. Smith, seeking a third opportunity to lay his credentials before the United States senate, denied outright statements made by Otis F. Glenn, his opponent.

EASTERN COLLEGE TO ORGANIZE FARM INSTITUTE SCHOOL

Recommended That School Study World Problems For Local Solution

NEW YORK, April 6. (AP)—Plans for the organization of a research institute on rural affairs and the establishment of a national agricultural museum at Columbia University were announced tonight by President Nicholas Murray Butler.

He made public at the same time a report of a committee of experts which, after a year of study, recommended that the institute be formed to study the world agricultural situation with a view to obtaining understanding of the problems of the farmers of the United States. The museum would be one of four or five in the world.

Dr. Butler said that $50,000 to $60,000 annually would be needed to start the work of the institute in co-operation with associated research work now under way at Columbia and that funds are now sought for this purpose.

The committee found that there was no adequate agricultural museum in the United States and recommended that its establishment be made one of the first tasks of the institute.

President Kenyon L. Butterfield, of Michigan State college, was chairman of the committee, among the members of which were Prof. John D. Black of Harvard, Congressman Elbert S. Brigham of St. Albans, Vt.; Frank Evans, general counsel, American Farm Bureau Federation, Chicago; former Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois; K. J. Taber, master of the National Grange of Columbus, Ohio; and H. A. Wallace, editor, "Wallace's Farmer," Des Moines, Ia.

PREPARES BILL TO GET HONOR MEDAL FOR FLIER

Washington, April 6. (AP)—Clarence D. Chamberlin, who flew from New York to Germany, would be awarded a congressional medal of honor in recognition of his flight under a bill prepared today by Representative Cohen, Democrat, New York.

"Chamberlin deserves the same honors as Col. Lindbergh and Commander Byrd for their flights, as his air journey is believed to have established a long distance flight record," Mr. Cohen said in a statement.

Charles A. Levine accompanied Chamberlin on the flight as a passenger.

WOMAN NABBED FOR POISONING ARKA'S WELL

Thought Her Birthright Was Being Sold, Belief

FOULKE, Ark., April 6. (AP)—Charged with having placed poison in the community well which rendered ill every one of the inhabitants of the J. R. Goldman saw mill camp near here, Mrs. Nancy Lynn, 70, was arrested here today with her brother, Robert Morris.

The pair were held on charges of assault with intent to kill after authorities had reported that the well water gave indications that arsenic had been placed in it.

Further investigation, they said, revealed that Mrs. Lynn had said a quantity of the poison from a Foulke drug store and her arrest followed. Every member of five families was ill today, and physicians said that at least one member of every family in camp was affected. Children were suffering most, it was said, and although physicians said none were seriously ill, considerable apprehension was felt.

About 20 families live in the camp.

The aged woman, authorities said, was suffering from an hallucination that her children were selling her birthright and that her remaining years would be spent in poverty. Her children told officers she probably believed a sale of timber she thought hers could be prevented if the lumbering crew at Foulke was removed.

When arrested and brought here, the aged woman refused to make a statement and her brother, several years her junior, was likewise silent. They will be arraigned tomorrow morning.

MRS. KNAPP IN COURT, PLEADS NOT GUILTY

ALBANY, N. Y., April 6. (AP)—Arraigned in supreme court, Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp of Syracuse, the only woman who had ever held state office in New York state, today entered a plea of denial that her administration of the 1925 state census had been sullied by criminal acts. She pleaded not guilty to each of six indictments handed down last night by a special grand jury convened for the express purpose of determining whether the charges of malfeasance and misfeasance in office warranted her being placed on trial.

Although Supreme Court Justice Stephen H. Callaghan had said last night that Mrs. Knapp must be in court at 10 a. m., today, the former secretary of state did not appear at the courthouse until 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. She had not known of the indictments, she said, until she read the morning papers in New York.

The arraignment proceedings lasted about six minutes. Mrs. Knapp entered her pleas in a firm voice.

Justice Callaghan announced that on next Wednesday, April 11, the date of the trial would be fixed by the court.

FALL GOES TO COAST TO TAKE REST CURE

EL PASO, April 6. (AP)—Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior left here for Pasadena, Calif., tonight. In the former cabinet member's party, which boarded a Southern Pacific train departing at 6:45 o'clock, were his wife, his daughter Mrs. B. F. Elliott and H. G. Clunn, Fall's private secretary.

The former cabinet officer will go to a sanitarium at Pasadena for an indefinite stay, on the advice of his physician, Dr. H. T. Stafford, who believed the lower altitude would be beneficial to Fall's heart. He has suffered from low blood pressure.

Fall appeared somewhat feeble, but cheerful as he was assisted from his automobile to the train.

French Trans-Atlantic Air Men Warming Up Planes For Flights; Four Plan Attempt

LE BOURGET, France, April 6. (AP)—The trans-Atlantic aviation season in France is getting under way in earnest with the approach of spring weather.

Today there were two planes with trans-oceanic ambitions in the air, while at least two other expeditions are understood in preparation including one by the air wing of the French navy.

Lieutenant Michael de Troyat, noted French pilot, who hopes to be the first to get away on a Paris to New York flight this year, took a 700 mile test flight, leaving Le Bourget at 4:30 o'clock this morning and turning out at Dijon nine hours later.

De Troyat was a sergeant in the 37th aviation regiment stationed at Le Bourget last year when Col. Charles A. Lindbergh made his historic flight from New York to the French capital. He helped get the American aviator out of the wild crush on the field after the landing and then later escorted him in a flight over Paris. He and Col. Lindbergh became great friends.

When Lieutenant de Troyat failed to return to Le Bourget after nine hours in the air, there was some thought that he might have started secretly on his great trans-Atlantic adventure but this was dispelled when he showed up at Dijon at 1:30 p. m. Friends at Le Bourget said that it was his intention before attempting the Atlantic to try to break both the duration and long distance records.

The approach of the Atlantic aviation season was emphasized this afternoon as a flyer here heralded of the "Diseau Rouge" (the Red Bird) piloted by Sergeant Major Antoine Paillard, a noted war flier.

It is understood that the air wing force of the French navy shortly will send a monoplane over the Atlantic with New York as its goal. The plane, however, will stop at the Azores and fly past Bermuda, but will not halt at the latter place unless necessary. Spare parts and gasoline already have been forwarded to the Azores.

There is much mystery attached to plans being made by Maurice Drouhin, one time pilot for Charles A. Levine while the latter was in Europe last year. Reports from Dublin early this week indicated that Drouhin was negotiating with the Irish Free state authorities for the use of the Baldonnel airdrome as a starting point for a trans-Atlantic flight.

BELIEVE EX-PRISON MATES GET REVENGE BY MURDERING SON

Seek Ex-Convicts in Quiz of Disappearance of California Boy

LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 6. (AP)—Working on a clue that a year old Walter Collins, missing since March 10, was the victim of a vengeance plot, police today organized a quiz for the hunt for two ex-convicts, recently released from Folsom prison.

The boy's father, Walter J. S. Collins, who is serving a term for robbery, charged that the mysterious disappearance of the boy was a part of a plot by eight men over whom he formerly had supervision in the prison.

Collins wrote to authorities here, giving them a detailed account of a feud that had sprung up among the prisoners. He charged that one of the men aligned against him in Folsom had abducted and murdered his son.

The convict father is serving a five year term. Three months ago, Collins wrote, he reported to the guards a serious infraction of rules against the eight men. After being punished for the offense, the group openly threatened Collins, declaring if they could not injure Collins himself, they would mete out vengeance on his family.

The boy disappeared from in front of his home where he lived with his mother, Mrs. Christine Collins.

W. VIRGINIA NATIVE SON TO MAKE FIGHT

CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 6. (AP)—West Virginia has a "favorite son" entry in the Republican presidential race.

United States Senator Guy D. Goff of Charleston today filed a certificate of his candidacy for the popular choice for the Republican presidential nomination at the state primary, May 23. The certificate was mailed from Washington.

Senator Goff is the first candidate in West Virginia to seek the popular choice for president on the Republican ballot.

AIRMAIL WILL CARRY EXPRESS PACKAGES

St. Louis, April 6. (AP)—Express service by airplane between St. Louis, Springfield, Ill., Peoria, Ill., and Chicago will be started as the result of an agreement reached here today by the Robertson Aircraft company and the American Express company. The express will be carried in the same planes which now carry passengers and mail, the aircraft firm announced.

The cost of mail express will be 25 cents for each quarter pound with a minimum charge of 1 dollar. At the destination of the shipments, the express company will take charge of the shipments as it now does with consignments over rail.

THEATER MAN ARRESTED FOR BOMBING PLOT

Hammond's Best Show House Blasted In November

HAMMOND, Ind., April 6. (AP)—Accused of plotting to dynamite the $1,500,000 State theatre which he leased, William Kleiwege, owner of two other Hammond theatres, was arrested by the state fire marshal today following the confession of Joseph Million, former State theatre employee, who said Kleiwege hired him to blow up the theatre.

The arrest of Kleiwege today climaxed an exhaustive investigation begun by the state fire marshal's office immediately after the Hammond theatre was dynamited last November. The theatre owner was taken into custody at his office last night, made his confession.

Million, Elmer Vrooman, the deputy state fire marshal said, accused Kleiwege of giving him $2,000 to arrange for the dynamiting of the theatre because business was bad and he wasn't making enough money to pay the big lease. Million said he gave $1,000 of the money to Harry Ames of Hammond, who is also under arrest charged with the actual bombing along with Dean Melloy and Marwood Williams, alleged accomplices.

The six men are held under bonds totaling $220,000.

MRS. COOLIDGE VISITS LONGER AT HOSPITAL

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., April 6. (AP)—Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, mother of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, who is ill at the Dickinson hospital here, spent a comfortable day, hospital attaches said tonight.

Encouraged by the improvement in her mother's condition during the past few days, Mrs. Coolidge lengthened her visits to the hospital today, spending an hour and a half with the aged patient in the forenoon and a similar period in the afternoon.

Before her morning visit, Mrs. Coolidge went shopping. A Northampton florist made the president-elect's Easter gift of a box of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge roses grown in his Hadley greenhouses. In the afternoon Mrs. Coolidge went for a drive to Amherst.

ST. LOUIS WAITRESS MYSTERIOUSLY SLAIN

KANSAS CITY, April 6. (AP)—Miss Opal Black, about 26, St. Louis waitress, was fatally injured here early today under circumstances which puzzled police. Two theories had been advanced, one of murder, another that she was the victim of a hit and run automobile driver.

The woman was found in a semi-conscious condition on the muddy wet pavement at Thirtieth street and the Paseo. She died at the general hospital three hours later after revealing her name.

The coroner's office said a fractured skull was the cause of death, that there were body bruises that could not have been made in an auto accident. Police, working on the theory Miss Black had been murdered and her body tossed from a speeding car, had been unable to find any clues tonight.

CELEBRATE HOLY WEEK Mexico City, April 6. (AP)—Although Catholic churches in Mexico are without priests since the religious law became effective, crowds of holy week worshippers continue, without any attempts at demonstrations, to enter the various churches. The services in some cases are conducted under lay leadership.

SNOW STORM CRIPPLES OMAHA TRAFFIC; COLDER WEATHER IS FORECAST

MELTING SNOW BRINGS FLOOD IN MICHIGAN

Highways Flooded At Detroit; Streams Leave Banks

DETROIT, April 6. (AP)—Spring weather with resultant melting of heavy snows and ice jams tonight had developed serious flood conditions in many districts of northern Michigan.

The Tittabawassee river went out of its banks near Midland, flooding several hundred acres of farm lands. All road communication with the city was cut off by the waters and the downstream tide continued to increase tonight. A broken levee at Midland cut off one section of the town and residents were forced to take to boats to reach the business district. Scores of motorists commencing between Flint, Bay City, Saginaw and Detroit were forced to store their cars and continue the trips by rail, because of the flooded conditions of the roads.

Maple river, north of Petoskey, was reported out of its banks in several places, flooding lowlands. Considerable apprehension is felt that piers of a large span bridge over the stream at Petoskey may not have been met. It was not enforced with sand bags in an effort to prevent damage to the city but the river was steadily rising tonight.

Scores of citizens of Upper Big Rapids were put to work bolstering levees of the Tuskegon river, which has passed flood stage.

A large power dam is located on the river at Big Rapids and some fear was felt that it might be necessary to dynamite a wing of the project to permit an unobstructed flow of the stream. Officials are maintaining a watch at the dam and dynamiting will be resorted to only as a last expedient.

IRISH WOMAN MAYOR INTERESTS H. FORD IN FACTORY SITES

Even Tries to Get Mrs. Ford to Aid in Getting Plant

SOUTHAMPTON, England, April 6. (AP)—Henry Ford's visit to England will be a site seeing trip, not a sight seeing jaunt, if Southampton's woman mayor and numerous industrial communities have their way about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford arrived here today on the steamship Majestic, and almost the first thing they heard about as soon as the ship touched the shores was the advantages of Southampton as a manufacturing center. This was related proudly by Mrs. Foster Welch, who were the chair of the mayorality office and was eager to set forth her arguments in favor of her home town at the earliest possible moment.

It seems that Mr. Ford has owned a factory site in Southampton for some time, but there have been delays in the erection of the plant. Mrs. Welch felt that she would like to have Mr. Ford himself take a look at the property. Her hope—and the hope of all Southampton—is that on this visit the automobile manufacturer may decide to go ahead with the plant to which the city has been looking forward for years.

Mrs. Welch not only had a long chat with Mr. Ford, but solicited the aid of Mrs. Ford, good naturedly remarking: "You know, Mrs. Ford we women must stand together." And Mrs. Ford replied: "We certainly must, but" she added, "Mr. Ford himself must decide about the site—I have nothing to do with that."

KILLED NEAR VENEZIA Rekalke, Ill., April 6. (AP)—Samuel Ross Selden, 40-year-old Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Selden of Cedar Rapids, Ia., was killed instantly today when the Seldens' automobile skidded on the Lincoln highway near here and overturned. The family was enroute home from a visit in Chicago.

MRS. WHEELER DIES Pasadena, Calif., April 6. (AP)—Mrs. Julia R. Wheeler, a sister of Frank White, treasurer of the United States, died at her winter home here today. She was the widow of Martin L. Wheeler of Stillman Valley, Illinois. Besides her mother, she is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Lawrence D. Sizer, of Benton Harbor, Mich.

GERMAN PLANE MAY HOP OFF IN NEXT 24 HOURS

Baldonnel Airdrome, Irish Free State, April 7. (Saturday). (AP)—It was believed here this morning that the German plane Bremen would start on its trans-Atlantic flight within 24 hours.

The weather report of conditions over the Atlantic said that they were the best since the plane arrived from Germany.

The depression on the Atlantic was almost stationary with southeasterly winds. All roadways were free of local showers. Visibility was good although the sea was rather rough.

FARM RELIEF BILL OPPOSED BY COOLIDGE

Equalization Fee Is Believed To Be Worst Fault

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—President Coolidge feels that the revised McNary-Haugen farm bill does not meet all of the objections he raised when he vetoed a similar measure last year, but he has not decided on his position relative to the bill now before the senate.

The president intends to withhold final judgment on the farm proposal until congress has acted upon it and transmitted it to the white house.

In some respects he is of the opinion that his objections of last year have been met. It was not made clear today in what particulars he considered the modified bill still objectionable but it is understood that he and his advisers are centering attention among other things on the equalization fee feature. That provision in the measure last year, was regarded as unconstitutional by Attorney General Sargent.

The president's view that the bill in its present form is still objectionable applies to both the senate and house drafts, although as he sees it the bill has been changed that about the only thing constant about it is its name.

While it was emphasized today that the president's action toward the proposal could not be determined at this time he felt that no one would be justified in predicting that he will sign or veto it.

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—While Democrats were blocking an attempt today to re-veto the McNary-Haugen farm bill it developed that President Coolidge regards the revised measure as still objectionable to a degree.

In this year's model of the bill the equalization fee is placed as an alternative to other machinery to care for crop surpluses, but it is (Continued on Page Four)

REJECT MEASURE TO FORM RUBBER POOL

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP)—A coalition of Democrats and "farm bloc" Republicans in the house today rejected by a record vote of 181 to 120 the Newton bill to permit American importers to form buying pools to combat foreign government monopolies in rubber, potash and sisal.

Opponents of the measure struck swiftly as soon as its consideration was commenced by the house, when Representative LaGuardia, Republican, New York, offered an amendment to strike out the measure's enacting clause. It was accepted, having the effect of killing the bill. The two days debate on the measure was curtailed by the injection of the name of Secretary Hoover, who is aspiring to the Republican presidential nomination, and who had appeared before the house judiciary committee to urge its enactment.

Democrats and two Republican representatives, Dickinson of Iowa and King of Illinois, the latter supporting Frank O. Lowden for the Republican nomination, assailed the commerce secretary for his approval of the measure, which they characterized as creating an American rubber trust. Advocates of the measure, however, lauded Mr. Hoover's efforts in combating the British rubber monopoly.

THE entire population of Bagtown and Pondville, mountain towns, swung themselves into line to fight the blaze with fire wardens, but the fire continued its path beyond control late tonight.

SHORTAGE OF MILK FEARED; RIVER RISING

Radio Stations Used To Send News To Outside World

CHICAGO, April 6. (AP)—Omaha, with its telephone and telegraph lines broken by a severe snow storm, remained in communication with outside points today largely by radio.

Transportation systems reaching the city were crippled and there was apprehension of a milk shortage. Omaha was the center of an unusual climatic disturbance extending from Des Moines to Lincoln, and north to the Canadian border.

Snow fell in Minnesota, North and South Dakota but not with as equally a destructive effect. Further, incapacitation of wire and rail lines in the Omaha region was expected as government forecasters predicted a zero temperature.

Soon after the day staffs of Omaha newspapers went to work today all telegraph and telephone wires went down. The Associated Press was without a line in the city.

Radio Is Used

Contact was first established by radio, station WDAF, operated by the Kansas City Star, broadcasting news dispatches to WOW, the Woodman of the World station at Omaha. Later WHIO, the Bankers Life station at Des Moines, "talked" with Omaha. The Chicago office of the Associated Press dispatched news to Omaha by wireless, using a United States army station here.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW TO BE BURIED IN HOME TOWN TODAY

Final Services to be Held in New York in Morning; at Home in Afternoon

In a silent brownstone house, situated immediately around a corner from the speeding traffic of Fifth avenue, the body of Chauncey Mitchell Depew rested tonight, while leaders in the nation gathered to pay him their last tribute on the morrow.

Through an atmosphere of peaceful quiet that contrasted of the noisy movements in surrounding blocks, visitors moved silently and hushed ed of visitors or curious pedestrians entered or passed the house at 27 West Fifty-fourth street where the aged financier, politician, humorist and philanthropist lived and died.

Non in a steady stream of visitors remained in more than a few moments. None would talk to reporters, even to give his name.

Arrangements for the funeral of the 93 year old chairman of the board of the New York Central railroad were announced today. From the family home the body will be taken to St. Thomas' Episcopal church in Fifth Avenue where funeral services will be conducted at 10:30 a. m. by the Rt. Rev. Ernest M. Stines, bishop of Long Island, assisted by the Rt. Rev. William T. Manning, bishop of New York, and the Rev. Rosell F. Brooks, rector of St. Thomas'. After the services the body will be taken under police escort to (Continued on Page Four)

FIRE SWEEPS TIMBER LANDS IN MARYLAND

HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 6. (AP)—Destroying more than 1500 acres of what forest wardens said were valuable timber lands, fire tonight completely blanketed South Mountain, 12 miles from here and despite the efforts of large patrols of volunteers and forest officials, licked its way forward rapidly.

Fanned by a stiff mountain wind, the fire was said to have started in four wooded centers in Frederick county and spread so rapidly that by nightfall it had enveloped the whole of South Mountain.

The entire population of Bagtown and Pondville, mountain towns, swung themselves into line to fight the blaze with fire wardens, but the fire continued its path beyond control late tonight.

OVERALLS IN CHURCH

In the little community of Henderson, La., a pastor has announced a uniform which he hopes his congregation will wear to church on Sundays. It consists of church overalls. The pastor himself will wear overalls in the pulpit.

Whether the materials will be denim and singletail or fine serge and silk is not announced. Presumably the pastor wants his flock to wear just what they wear about their duties during the week. Probably he will not object to the Sunday costume being freshly laundered.

It may be true that churches are sometimes used more as places for dress parade than for spiritual inspiration. Yet there is something quite normal and psychologically useful in putting on one's "Sunday-go-to-meeting" best for church. It creates a new sense of dignity, poise, and respect to do so. It places the wearers in a proper frame of mind for higher thoughts and aspirations. Overall as a church costume might correct one evil at the expense of much good.

RURAL BEAUTY

It is reported that the Council for the Preservation of Rural England is really doing effective work in keeping England beautiful. Where a great estate is to be broken up for town building or other residential purposes, the Council is right on the job to see that no haphazard and ugly construction is allowed. Suburban development is attractive and harmonious. Natural beauty is preserved and not destroyed.

desperately needed in this country. Here the neglect of the rural regions near industrial centers proceeds apace. Jerry-building, billboards, the destruction of trees and the contamination of pretty streams follow along the trail of the automobile from the city into the country.

Some communities have shown that such things are not necessary, but a lot of others have not yet learned the lesson.

CHOICE IN CHINA
"China is burning with a passion to become a modern nation," says Maurice Hindus, traveler and writer. And it is going to pursue one of two courses.

China will follow the course of western freedom and progress, or the course of Bolshevik blight.

The educated and intelligent Chinese, he says, especially those educated in America, want to take the Anglo-Saxon path. But the peasants, who are an enormous majority, are being saturated with Russian propaganda.

So it comes back to the same old problem, with the same old choice for the western nations to make. The powers may continue to irritate China by claiming special privileges, threatening and bulldozing that country instead of treating it with respect. In that case they will drive China into the arms of Russia, despite the heroic efforts of Nationalist leaders to stem the Bolshevik tide. Or the western powers, taking their cue from American ideals of friendliness and fair play, may deal squarely and courteously with China, as an equal among nations, and thereby win that once great empire as a friend and associate for the future.

The Chinese race is worth befriending and cultivating for itself. It is doubly so because of the menace behind it. Russia has settled down to an indefinite course of Communism, and Russia is determined to dominate Asia. The outcome of present conflicts in China will vitally affect America for a century.

MONOTONY

Most of this world revolves on an axis of nerves. And each of us owns an axle.

And often we think that the rest of the world revolves about our axis which, of course, it doesn't. There's where trouble begins. And worry too. We get fidgety, and unruly, and aren't good companions. Then we are forced into loneliness and we work away at our set jobs with lessening interest until we look upon all life as monotonous.

But the trouble is that we get tied up in a knot about ourselves. We then need freedom, change, new scenery.

Few realize how much monotony effects health. People who do the same thing over and over again, day in and day out, grow gray before their time and trample youth under their feet.

Interests are what keep people happy. You can forget a multitude of troubles behind an interesting line of varied tasks. Idle people always think the world is about to topple over. And if you only put your salary into your work, instead of yourself, you become almost as dead as the idle fellow.

There isn't anything so killing as monotony. And nothing so stimulating as to have more to do than you think it possible for you to do.

Most people get into this monotony business because they get afraid of themselves. They hate to leave their own tracks. Yet, what a refreshing process it is to blaze a new trail, to hunt out new methods, to discover new beauties hidden behind introduced paths!

My mother used to tell me that she thought every boy should have a trade up his sleeve. I think she was right. I think that every man and woman should have some sort of hobby. It tends to clean out the cobwebs and sweeps the brain of fog.

I recently stopped in a city where the "blue laws" reign supreme. No one is allowed to do anything on Sunday but eat and go to church. No outdoor recreation of any kind allowed. I'll wager that no town ever knew bluer Mondays!

My idea of religion is that it should embody everything healthy and beautiful. Everything that makes people happier should be embodied in such a religion. God gave this world to us to love and to be happy in.

Canton Goes To Semi-finals In Chicago Meet

Defeat Utah Five 22 To 17; To Play Grand Forks Today

CHICAGO, April 6. (AP)—Canton, the Illinois hope in the national high school basketball tournament today won its way into the semi-finals, defeating Dixie High of St. George, Utah, the west's lone remaining entry, 22 to 17. The game was a great exhibition of delayed offense and five man defense as played by Canton and a fast breaking offense as portrayed by St. George. Several times it appeared as if one of the teams had the game sewed up but the other would come back strong to tie the count. The 17-17 score was broken with less than two minutes to play when Captain Gordis made a free throw to give the Illinois champions a one-point lead. Then Eddy, brilliant Canton forward, caged two field goals in rapid succession, his only ones of the game.

Canton led the quarter, 5 to 2, and the half, 10 to 9, but the boys from the Mormon state came back in the third session to hold a 14-10 advantage as the play entered its last stages. The score was tied three times in the last quarter.

Elwood Romney and Lorraine Cox led the Utah scorers with three field goals each, but Schell, Canton forward, captured scoring honors with four field goals. Each team made seven field goals but Canton won on its ability to make good chances from the free throw line.

Grand Forks Wins
Grand Forks, N. D., with a team of long shot artists, advanced to the semi-finals, defeating Alexandria, La., 23 to 22 in a brilliant last minute rally.

With less than a minute to play Nelson, stellar Grand Fork guard, gave his team a 22 to 21 lead, tipping in shot from under the basket. A few seconds later Trimble, Louisiana guard, committed his fourth foul and Clinton made good the attempt from the free throw line. Harper scored another free throw for Louisiana as the gun went off.

With Ducey at the Grand Forks forward, slowed up because of injury Clinton and Nelson took charge of the offense from guard position, each scoring three field goals and the former adding two free throws.

Barber led the Alexandria attack with five field goals. Grand Forks led at the half 13 to 7, but Alexandria came back in the third period to take a 19 to 16 advantage. The lead alternated in the last session until Clinton shot the winning goal.

Carr Creek Drops
Vienna, Ga., with one of the greatest passing combinations ever to play in the National High school basketball tournament, tonight defeated the scrapping Carr Creek, Kentucky, five, 22 to 11. Vienna meets Ashland, Ky., winner over Carr Creek in four overtime periods in the state tournament, tomorrow in the semi-final round of the University of Chicago classic.

GILL'S ILLINI MEET TROJAN STARS TODAY

West Believes Southern California Thineads Will Beat University Team—Gillmen Strong in Distances.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 6. (AP)—The 1928 cinder path products of two coaches whose service records date back more than a score of years—veteran Harry Gill's strong Illinois sprinters and grizzled Dean Cromwell's Trojan tracksters of Southern California—will clash on the Coliseum turf here tomorrow in intercollegiate battle.

And the west tonight carried the odds of victory over the invading Illini. Cromwell's aggregation, although twice defeated this season, appeared the stronger team, with strength concentrated in the sprints, hurdles, pole vault and middle distance.

The wearers of the Orange and Blue, who have been training here for several days, likewise possess star performers in several events, notably the two long distance races, and present a fairly well balanced squad that is expected to battle the Trojans through the meet and make the final outcome in doubt until the last events.

Roughly, experts divide the majority of points in each event as follows:

Illinois, mile, two mile, shot, pole, discus, high jump and quarter mile.
Southern California, 100, 200, 800, high and low hurdles, broad jump and pole vault. The javelin is a bit in doubt.

In practice the Illinois distance runners have demonstrated they are far better than their Trojan rivals. Warren Woodruff, Ellsworth Patterson and Vose Adams, Gill's quintet of Abbott, McElwee, Novak, Stine and White are considered sure of at least 16 points in the two events.

But to offset these "certains" Illinois points, Cromwell is credited with "sure" points in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, with his sophomore, Fred Schulte, and his Texas flyer, Edwin Draper, who has groomed Joe Timm and Hugh Hale in an effort to nose out Draper in each of the sprints.

Sunday Baseball Managers Boost For Local Team

With the Central Association organized league baseball season evidently blown over, Jack Grady and Frank Fernandez of Springfield and Ralph Teetters of Jacksonville, have begun planning an other baseball league for Jacksonville, this time with the team playing in a hard roads league.

Grady and Teetters yesterday were attempting to get a start on equipping the team and from the responses which they received, prospects are favorable for a hard roads league team in this city.

Mr. Grady said yesterday that a meeting of teams interested in a hard roads league would be held Sunday afternoon in Canton and that he would represent Jacksonville. No plans have been as yet in the new league.

Jacksonville's team this year will be known as the Jacksonville Merchants, inasmuch as the merchants are being solicited to give the members of the team uniforms. Each merchant who contributes a uniform, will place his firm name on the back of the shirt.

Mr. Grady said yesterday that the first practice session for the Jacksonville Merchants would be held Sunday, April 15 and that the first game would probably be played Sunday, April 22. It is planned to allow all good local talent a try-out.

FRED SCHULTE, BROWNS OUTFIELDER, TO WED

BELVIDERE, Ill., April 6 (AP)—Two important "dates" are on the calendar for Fred Schulte, St. Louis Browns outfielder, for April 15.

In the afternoon, at Chicago, he will play with the Browns against the Chicago White Sox. After the game, he plans to go to Belvidere to be married to his school day sweetheart, Miss Maude Slater, daughter of a local clothing merchant.

Announcement of the forthcoming marriage was made by the bride's parents today.

Babe and Gehrig Hoist Ball Out of Park 4 Times

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 6. (AP)—The "home run twins" put on their act today for the first time this season.

Lou Gehrig hoisted two balls out of the park, but found his feat matched by the "Old Master", Babe Ruth. Those four home runs, coupled with 19 other hits and five walks gave the New York Yankees a 23 to 10 victory over the Charlotte club of the Sally league.

Gehrig put both of his homers over the right field fence, while Ruth, playing no favorites, sent his first over the centerfield flagpole and his second over the right field barrier. To make the Yankees look more like themselves, Pat Collins also drove the ball over the fence.

The Babe and Columbia Lou each picked the seventh inning for one of their circuit drives. That seventh was a nightmare for two Charlotte pitchers for the Yankees scored 11 times before the side was retired. Ruth was up twice, singling the first time and hitting his first home run of the game on his next trip.

His last homer came in the ninth inning with two men on base.

Ruth's record for the day showed two singles and a walk in addition to his homers. Gehrig also connected for a double to bring his total base record to 10.

Correll hit a home run, a triple and two singles for Charlotte. New York 602 100 (11) 02-23 34 2 Charlotte .015 102 .001-10 17 3 Covaleskie, Johnson, Campbell and Collins, Glicky, Mitchell, Stacey, Brugg, Conklin and Walsh, Hunter.

Tigers Beat Pirates

DALLAS, Texas, April 6. (AP)—Detroit's Tigers defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates here this afternoon 6 to 3, after a Pittsburgh rally in the ninth had netted all of the Pirate runs. Harry Hellmann, Detroit outfielder, hit a homer and two doubles.

The American leaguers ousted the National league champions, 12 to 9. Score: Pittsburgh .000 000 003-3 9 3 Detroit .101 000 04x-6 12 1 Grimes, Fussell and Gooch; Billings, Gibson and Shea, Woodall.

Giants Win 13 in Row

NORFOLK, Va., April 6. (AP)—Washington took its usual beating from the New York Giants today, this time by a 10 to 2 score. Jim Chaplin went the route for the McGrawmen and let down the Senators with seven hits, one a home run by Red Barnes. Bob Burke, Sam Jones and Ed Wells took the pitching for the Senators, but Jones alone was effective.

Sad Sam let the Giants down with a single hit in three innings and fanned three men. Lindstrom hit a home run for the Giants in the first inning.

The victory was the Giants' sixth in a row over the Senators and their thirteenth straight during the spring training schedule. Washington .000 101 000-2 7 4 New York N. 141 000 22x-10 12 0 Burke, Jones, Wells and Tate; Chaplin and Hogan.

Robins Win Easily

Raleigh, N. C., April 6. (AP)—Del Biscione pounded out a double and a home run, each time with the bases full, to feature Brooklyn's easy 12 to 0 victory over Raleigh in an exhibition game today.

The minor leaguers could do nothing with Leon Williams or Lou Koupal, who allowed but six hits. The Dodgers reached three Raleigh hurriers for 14 solid drives. Score: Brooklyn .020 006 040-12 6 1 Raleigh .000 000 000-0 4 1 Williams, Koupal and Henline; Smith, Conway, Beal and Branch, Dennis.

KEECH PLANS TRIAL AT AUTO SPEED-MARK

Will Try To Break 206.9 Miles An Hour Record With 36 Cylinder Triple This Afternoon—Reach Rough.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., April 6. (AP)—Ray Keesch, Philadelphia race driver, after making two test runs on the beach here, one at an average speed of 75 miles an hour and another at 100, decided to postpone his attempt to lower the world's record of 206.9 miles an hour, until tomorrow.

Driving the huge 36 cylinder Triple car of J. W. White, Philadelphia manufacturer, Keesch said he found beach conditions unfavorable for a record run today.

Keesch said the beach, which had been whipped into long waves by high offshore winds of the past several days, was too rough for high speed performance in safety.

American Automobile Association officials viewed the test runs today and gave their approval of the triplex as it now stands, which automatically will sanction any record broken. Installation of a reverse gear removed the disqualification of the triplex which was placed on her in February.

Wilbur Shaw will try to break the world four cylinder speed record next week with a Whippet which was shipped from Toledo today.

Frank Lockhart, who narrowly escaped death when his Stutz Blackhawk shot into the ocean during his February attempt to break the free for all record, has announced in Toledo that he will make another try within two weeks in the same machine.

Low tide for Keesch's contemplated run tomorrow will be between 2:30 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

TILDEN BEATS FIRST Foe In Mexican Meet

MEXICO CITY, April 6. (AP)—William T. Tilden, 2nd, defeated Robert G. Kinsey, native born American, playing for Mexico, in straight sets 6-1, 6-2, 6-4, to give the United States victories in the first two singles matches of Davis cup competition.

Kinsey was no match for Tilden, who was in superb form. Kinsey's play showed improvement in the third set but it was evident that he could not hope to win a set. He broke through Tilden's service to win two games and was at one time on even terms in the third set with the games four all.

The winner had his opponent running all over the court chasing deadly placements which he could not return and often could not touch.

"FAN BREEZES"

And children, be sure today when you prepare the nests in which the Easter bunny is to leave the annual quota of eggs, that the nest is placed in a warm place.

Leave a cup of hot coffee beside the nest too, because the bunny is going to be tired and cold when he gets to the nest.

Have compassion on the poor bunny and don't expect too much from him this year.

For a team which has been razed considerably in its district, sectional, state and national tournament games, Canton seems to be doing right well.

They'll play a North Dakota team today in the semi-finals at 2 o'clock, and if victorious will go into the final round tonight. Dick-Dyas, a writer for the Campaign News-Gazette, says that the Canton team reminds him of the University of Illinois team of last year.

There are no stars on the team.

He indicates that he believes that part of the razzing the Canton boys get is caused from the lack of outstanding stars. In football, he says, the public wants the Red Granges, Herb Jennings and Benjie Covernans; and when a team which plays a game according to a system defeats a team with star and mediocre players, the fans feel that they have not received their money's worth.

We've been trying to figure out why all this rain. Write the headquarters of the gubernatorial candidates and see if they can't explain it. They've explained almost everything else.

ALLEGEDLY DEAD MAT MAN COMES TO LIFE

WEST POINT, N. Y., April 7. (AP)—Tom Jenkins, the famous old professional wrestler, not only is far from being dead but ready to demonstrate it for the benefit of anybody in general and particularly William A. Brady, under whose name an article in this week's issue of Liberty magazine, describing a match at Cleveland between Jenkins and Yousouf, the "Terrible Turk", says:

"Jenkins never recovered. He suffered severe injuries that indirectly caused his death some years later."

This match was staged some 30 years ago. Jenkins, now an instructor at the United States military academy, is still able to take care of himself in grappling with his young cadet pupils. To show the interviewer today that the reports of his death are "greatly exaggerated" he playfully wished the correspondent about the neck.

Jenkins also disagrees with Brady's story of the match with Yousouf. Brady describes how the Terrible Turk, after winning the first fall, lunged at Tom so fiercely that both hurtled through the ropes and to the floor 10 feet below, with the Turk's 300 pounds on top of his rival. This, so the story runs, created a terrific outburst among the spectators threatening harm to the Turk until Jenkins dramatically was hoisted back up to the ring and calmed the crowd with a gesture. This picture is colorful enough but the other side, as painted by Jenkins, is equally as vivid if also of different hue. To provide a choice here is Tom's version:

"The truth of that match is that Yousouf ran from the mat five times and refused to wrestle. It was necessary for the officials to force the Turk back to the mat at the point of a gun in order to continue. Once he lost his temper and swung at me around the head, tossing me far out into the audience, but I was not hurt and continued. The crowd started throwing pop bottles at the Turk when they noticed him using his fist on my chin. The upsurge finally got to such a point after over an hour of wrestling that Yousouf quit and demanded his money, which was forthcoming. He did not throw me nor did he drop on top of me out of the ring."

AMATEUR BASEBALL CHAMPIONSHIP PLAN

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 6. (AP)—The National Baseball Federation decided today to hold a world's amateur baseball championship at Cincinnati this year and a semi-professional championship at Detroit.

The amateur event is to take place in September. The site of the industrial team championship was left to be determined at the summer session of the federation in July at Akron, O.

Clayton C. Townes of Cleveland, O., chairman of the committee on finance of the organization, said that Judge Landis, also reported as favoring the federation, had taken no steps to aid it.

The committee is seeking the cooperation of the major leagues and Mr. Townes said another conference has been arranged for the latter part of this month at which it was hoped to get a definite reply from the majors as to the assistance they would give.

VOIGT AND HOMANS IN TIE FOR LEADERSHIP

PINEHURST, N. C., April 6. (A P)—George J. Voigt of Washington, D. C., and Eugene Homans, 19 year old Princeton freshman, shared honors at the end of the first day's qualifying play at the 25th annual north and south amateur championship. Both scored 39-34-73.

A scramble for places among the championship sixteen is expected to result tomorrow because there were seventeen players tonight who had scores of better than 80.

MULLEN GETS PERMIT

Chicago, April 6. (AP)—The State Boxing Commission today granted a permit to Promoter Jim Mullen to conduct a boxing show on Soldier Field on July 19, the day on which Mickey Walker has agreed to defend his middleweight championship against any opponent, probably Ace Hudkins, "The Nebraska Wildcat."

Mullen said he expected to come to terms with Hudkins for the match tomorrow. Walker, he said, has already started light training at his home in Elizabeth, N. J.

Sport Writers Favor Pirates In National

By Alan J. Gould.

NEW YORK, April 6. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, who gave the experts a severe scare before staggering home in front of the National league pack last season, are again the choice of the critics in the front line, by a margin that is high, wide and convincing.

Thirty-two of the 52 newspaper experts around the major league circuit who contributed to the annual poll of the Associated Press select the Pirates to win the 1928 race, with the St. Louis Cardinals as their principal rivals, picked by 12 writers to win but by most of the others for second place.

The Chicago Cubs and New York Giants complete the first division choices, as revealed by this comprehensive poll of expert opinion and make up what the critics regard as the "big four" pennant contenders. The Cubs are picked by five and the Giants by three observers to get under the wire first.

The heavy preponderance of opinion in favor of the Pirates not only reflects a stronger regard for their chances than a year ago but is noteworthy in view of the widespread belief that the 1928 National league race will be even more hotly contested than last year.

RAIN RUINS PRACTICE GAME FOR I. C. SQUAD

Lynnville Indians Make It Plenty Warm For Locals But Rain Spoils Contest at End of Inning and a Half.

April showers may bring flowers in May, but the showers are not much assistance in developing a baseball team. Coach Lewis A. Brockett of Illinois College, ordered his Hilltop squad to postpone Thursday, a few days in advance of the return of the other Hilltop students, but to date the blue clad lads have been able to get in about two and one-half innings of practice, and that came yesterday when the Lynnville Indians appeared on the Hilltop diamond and convinced the boys that base hits meant ball games.

Herman Conrady, the big southpaw, went to the mound for the locals and yielded two base hits and a walk.

Hankins, pitching for the Lynnville club, kept the local lads swinging at the high winds, but was continually in trouble on account of errors on the part of his mates.

The score was 1 to 0 for Lynnville after the first half of the third inning, when an April shower came along and put an end to the playing for the day. In the first inning, one Lynnville hitter went to first base, and in the second inning, a lucky hit which soared up into the sky against the stiff wind and fell near the first base foul line, scored the only run of the day.

In Illinois' turn to bat, two players went to first base and in the second inning, three men trotted safely over the first bag, only to die when Hankins fanned the man at the plate for the third out.

SPRINGFIELD HI-Y MAN ADDRESSES CLUB

Secretary Frantz of the Springfield Y. M. C. A. spoke to the members of the HI-Y at their meeting Tuesday.

Mr. Frantz, who has had much experience in China, took as his subject "Chinese Revolution." He gave a short history of all the rebellions and their causes. Mr. Frantz showed under what terrible conditions the people of China live, because of these conditions he thought the people justified in rebelling.

A short business meeting was held when matters concerning the club were discussed. Also as many members as possible were urged to attend the Older Boys' conference to be held April 19 and 21.

The meeting was held at State Street church. The members of the club served the supper themselves, and those who were to be punished for misconduct were made to wash the dishes. These members were Thomas MacVicar, Harold Bussing, Raymond Bossarte, and Julian Rawlings.

EDITORIALS

"Stop, look, and listen." I imagine that most of you have heard these words many times. What do they mean to you? If you will, you can profit highly from those words.

Think of the lives that might have been saved if people would only "stop" before crossing a railroad track. Few even have a chance to regret their action or profit by experience.

To illustrate "look" I shall use myself as an example. Often I do a thing never thinking about looking at the other side. The results are sometimes rather disastrous. If you will but look you will see many points that you never saw before.

Last but not least "listen." How many people go through life without listening to the other fellow? Give him a chance and he may help.

If I had my way I should add "think" to the list. That is the other three combined. Do you really think? A good many of us go through this adventure of life without thinking at all. Benjamin Franklin thought and thought hard. He said "Happy the man whom the experience of others makes cautious." Think over other people's actions results and you will not be so quick to act. Most of you are capable of thinking, but do you do it? In important events always "look before you leap."

After telling you my opinion of the saying as it now is, I shall tell you what it should be in old J. H. S. "Stop, look and listen before you write on the walls—and you won't write." Don't need a living illustration of "The moving finger writes, and having writ moves on." They always say "Fool's names like fool's faces are always found in public places."

If you wish to be remembered in J. H. S. do something that is immortal, something that will last forever. Write on the walls with your pencils, and incidentally make your walls look ugly. For they are your walls. I know it is a great temptation, but "stop, look and listen" before you write—and you won't write.

Too often is Easter considered the time when little bunny rabbits call on children leaving them brightly colored eggs and candy. Easter should be remembered as the time that Christ rose from the dead, and not as a day with trivial customs. The Easter bunny is, of course, all right—nothing sacrilegious in itself; but I think it will, in time, make people consider it as the important thing on Easter. Just as people consider Santa Claus the all important factor on Christmas. Let us stop this habit and maintain the holiness of Easter.

Mayor Thompson came in for harsh denunciation by Edward W. Litsinger, candidate for member of the board of review, after previously making accusations in kind.

Crowe Is Target

Crowe was assailed by U. S. Senator Charles S. Deneen, Judge Swanson, Frank J. Loesch, chairman of the Chicago Crime Commission, and other speakers.

In Chicago and Cook county the fight between Crowe and Swanson for the nomination for state attorney by far overshadowed even the struggles for U. S. senator and governor.

Gov. Len Small, seeking a third term, and his opponent, Louis L. Emmerson, present secretary of state, continued to make numerous Chicago appearances, as did Oscar E. Carlstrom, incumbent, and John Dailey, candidates for the nomination for state attorney general.

The reason for the extreme interest in the Crowe-Swanson fight was found by several newspapers in the political prestige that Crowe has built in the seven years he has held office since he left the county bench, although one newspaper went so far as to say with the assertion that "back of the scenes" there is a fight equally as desperate between Crowe and Thompson for undisputed control of the Republican county central committee.

Democrats Enjoy Now

The Democrats are without major contests and largely are represented as hugely enjoying the spectacle presented by the Republicans. In some quarters, however, there were rumors today that appeals had been made to some of the alleged bi-partisan leaders to interest the Democrats in the Republican strife.

The name of Samuel Insull, rich public utilities magnate, who is vacationing in England, continued to be mentioned frequently today by opponents of the Crowe-Thompson-Small faction. One of the heaviest donors to the campaign fund of Col. Smith, whose acceptance of such gifts was responsible for his senate rejection, Mr. Insull was assailed by Litsinger and others as the "big" between Gov. Small and Mayor Thompson in an effort to gain personal control of Chicago streets for the Insull enterprises.

Crowe again today reached back 24 years for criticism of Senator Deneen, then state's attorney, alleging gambling and other vices were "wide open."

Crime Report

The senator replied he had no personal knowledge of such conditions but added "I assume he knows whereof he speaks."

The Chicago Crime Commission issued statistics to show that Crowe punished only 394 persons of 12,543 arrested on bills of complaint or indicted in 1926. Of the 394, said the report, 249 pleaded guilty.

Mayor Thompson was heckled when he tried to address a noon day meeting in the stockyards district, but paid no attention and completed his speech.

Petitions signed by 400,000 voters were on file in the election commissioners' offices today asking that three questions of public policy regarding Chicago's traction problem be submitted to voters at the June 4 election to stop the "infringement" of Smith, Smith and Thompson from accomplishing their nefarious scheme to betray the car riders and the people of Chicago into the hands of Insull for all time.

TRANS-ARCTIC FLYER AWAITS GOOD WEATHER

SEWARD, Alaska, April 6. (AP)—Postponement of the trans-Arctic flight attempt of Captain George H. Wilkins for at least another day was the interpretation placed today by United States signal corps radio operators here today upon the silence which has enveloped the expedition since a brief message from the explorer last night.

Wilkins, waiting at Point Barrow for a favorable opportunity for his 2,100 mile flight to Spitzbergen, pierced the isolation of Arctic darkness last night with the news that cloudiness had prevented the take off yesterday. The radio signalled a faint and fragmentary mention of "tomorrow," indicating that Wilkins awaited better weather conditions today.

No further word has been received today by the operators here and it was felt that the cloudiness had again hindered the take off.

WRANGLE DEVELOPS CANYON FLOOD PROBE

LOS ANGELES, April 6. (AP)—The inquest on victims of St. Francis dam disaster today became a battleground for conflicting theories of experts on how and why the structure gave way the night of March 12, causing a loss of 49 lives.

Frank Reiber, engineer of San Francisco, testified that the eastern wing of the dam went off first, its collapse caused by a landslide of a depth bomb of dynamite or nitro-glycerine.

Edward L. Mayberry, Los Angeles, engineer and member of the district attorney's committee of experts which already has reported that faulty foundations caused the crash, picked the west side as the one which weakened and permitted the death-dealing flood to pour down on the sleeping inhabitants of the Santa Clara river valley.

Still has the hearty support of its sponsors.

The maneuvering of senate Democrats to block the setting of Tuesday for a final vote of the measure served to delay its progress, the minority members declaring they wished more time in which to draft amendments.

Another interested in the delay was Senator McKellar, Democrat, Tennessee, who will seek to restrict the proposed federal farm board's power in utilization of the equalization fee.

McNary had previously indicated that a vote would be taken this week, but this outlook was definitely dissipated by today's moves. Although the texts of the promised amendments had not been revealed, there was reason to believe that no serious hindrance to early action would spring from them. A vote by Wednesday was expected in some quarters, owing to indications that the farm bloc would be sympathetic toward the latest suggestions for change.

Among these is a tentative proposal that the various commodity councils be named by the president with senate consent. Instead of by the farm board. Another would seek to require the consent of the advisory council before the board could declare an operating period for the equalization fee on the commodity controlled by the council.

IRISH PILOT JOINS GERMAN SEA VENTURE

BALDONNELL AIRDROME Irish Free State, April 6. (AP)—The projected trans-Atlantic flight of the German Junkers plane Bremen, which has been straining at the leash for the past two weeks, awaiting favorable weather, became a German-Irish venture today.

Colonel James C. Fitzmaurice, chief of the Irish Free State air force, will be the second pilot in the Bremen accompanying Captain Hermann Koehl and Baron von Huenefeld. The colonel will take the place of Arthur Spindler, who returned to Berlin several days ago after what was reported to have been a row with the baron.

The Irish army authorities today granted Colonel Fitzmaurice leave of absence so that the Bremen's flight could be a German-Irish undertaking, the Germans being particularly anxious to have an Irish pilot accompany them.

Although snow, sleet and fog over the Atlantic have been putting a damper on the plans of the fliers to get away for the United States, weather conditions were reported improving today. The Bremen is fully fueled and can be made ready for flight in two hours time.

SHORTAGE OF MILK FEARED; RIVER RISING

While eastern Nebraska felt the effects of a hesitant winter Mississippi river points experienced results of early spring thaws.

The river attained a stage of 9.8 feet at Keokuk today, and still was rising.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, across the river from Omaha was almost as badly hit. Street cars between the two cities were out of service for a time, and many workers were forced to tramp through the snow, which attained a depth of 10 inches, to reach their jobs.

Railroads suffered chiefly because the dispatching of trains was crippled. All of the 250 toll telephone lines out of Omaha were put out of service and nearly 1,000 city subscribers were cut off. Irvington, Bellevue and other towns near Omaha, depending upon that city for power and light, reverted to predecessors of electricity.

GOOD FRIDAY MEANS NOTHING TO CLERKS

NEW YORK, April 6. (AP)—Today was a holiday for members of the stock exchange and other security markets of New York, but it was only another Friday to thousands of bookkeepers and clerks. The enormous transactions in the "bull market" which began on March 9 had piled up detail and routine work so high that workers in financial district offices were compelled to remain at their posts on Good Friday, and most of them will be hard at work again tomorrow.

The stock exchange was closed today and tomorrow for no other reason than to provide time in which to clear away the extraordinary amount of work which has accumulated because of human inability to complete hundreds of extra tasks during working hours. Telling over the so-called holiday came on top of an unprecedented run of overtime, which in the case of many brokerage house workers has run far into the morning's small hours.

CHICAGO BUTTER

Chicago, April 6. (AP)—Butter today declined to go on all grades and market tone was barely steady with undertone unsettled and nervous at the decline. Buyers showed very little interest and trade was dull. Centralized car market ruled barely steady and nervous with supplies liberal. Buyers were not showing a great deal of interest and trade was slow.
